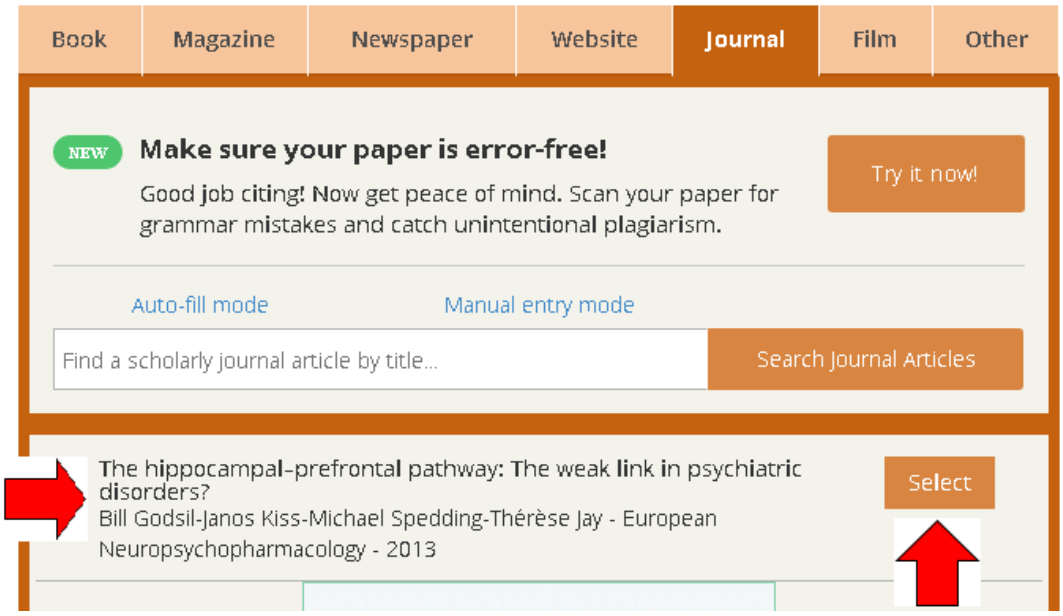
Guidelines for the use of citationmachine

To quickly prepare the references list of journal publications for your abstract, we recommend following the simple steps below:

1. Go to: http://www.citationmachine.net/european-neuropsychopharmacology/cite-a-journal
   Note: This service is for free.

2. Insert the title of the publication (see red arrow below):

3. Click - Select - on the correct identified title (usually the first result, if not, scroll down the list to find the title).
   Example: "The hippocampal-prefrontal pathway: The weak link in psychiatric disorders?"



Note: Do not select the title starting with the error message "Faculty of 1000 evaluation for…". Scroll down the list to find the correct title.

4. Click on - Final Step -

5. Click on - Create Citation –
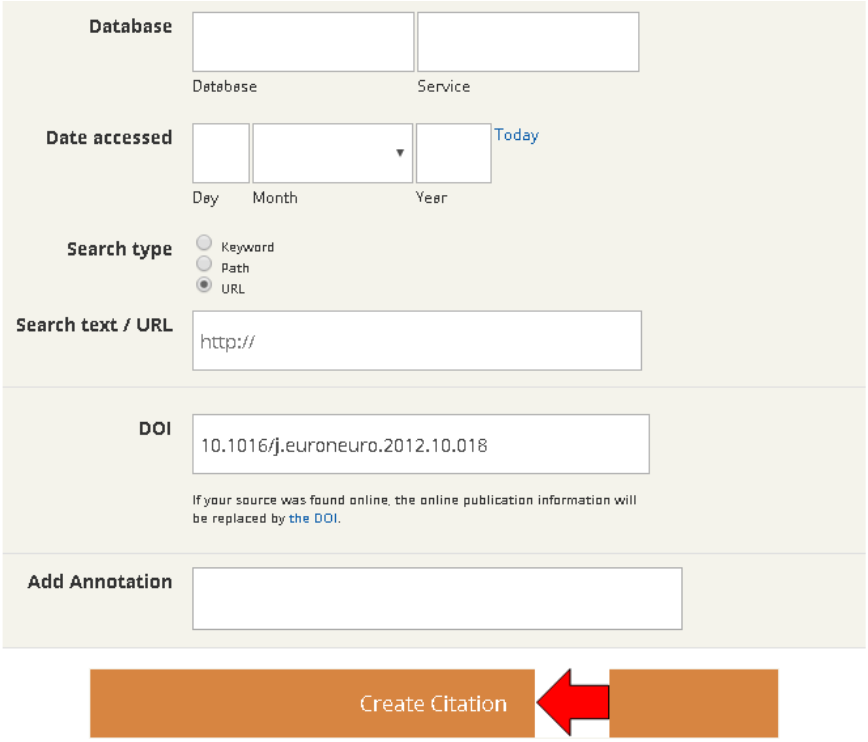
Note: Please do not amend/change the information in the text fields.



6. The new reference appears in the light yellow highlighted text block.
   Note: No need to remove the doi in your references.

7. Always check if all the information is correct!

8. Click on – Create another citation – to prepare the next reference.
