About ECNP

ECNP was founded to help turn discoveries in how the brain works into treatments that improve the lives of people suffering from disorders of the brain.

That bridge between basic science and real-world treatment is the challenge in neuroscience today. It is fundamental to the ECNP mission and the central organising principle of the ECNP Congress.

Every year the ECNP Congress attracts over 6,000 psychiatrists, neuroscientists, neurologists and psychologists from 100 countries around the world to share the latest developments in human mood, behaviour, cognition and emotion and their application to the treatment of brain disorders.

No other meeting in the world brings together so many researchers and clinicians across such a spectrum of brain research and clinical practice.

It is the breadth and reputation for scientific depth and excellence that has made the ECNP Congress the premier showcase for new research, treatments and technologies in the CNS arena.

"The congress offered valuable scientific insights and an excellent opportunity to learn about the latest developments in mental health research."

Partnering with industry

The ECNP Congress offers a host of ways for companies to engage with congress participants at both the scientific and educational levels.

We have a long history of productive relationships with industry and work hard to ensure our industrial partners have the opportunities and support to achieve their congress objectives.

Check out our partners of the past two congresses:

Our audience

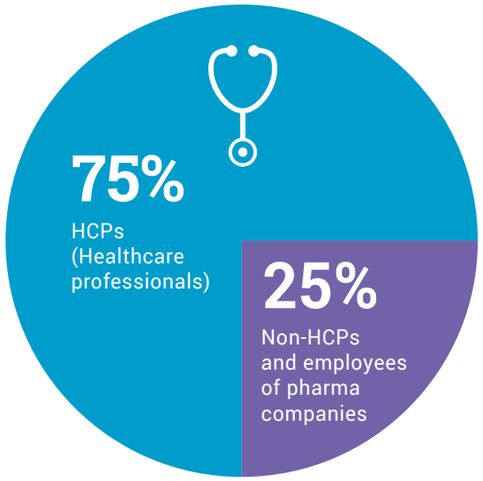

The ECNP Congress is Europe's leading forum for the exchange and dissemination of research on the brain and disorders of the brain, covering the breadth of applied and translational neuroscience.

The psychiatrists, neuroscientists, neurologists and psychologists, as well as regulatory professionals, industry executives and patient representatives, that the ECNP Congress attracts every year gives it unparalleled scale and reach.
